

Jeffrey Brown, Jr.

Mr. Brown has been with Holmes Community College since 2004. A graduate of the University of Mississippi and Jones Junior College, he teaches Steel Band, Percussion Ensemble, the Marching Band Drumline and Pit, percussion lessons and recital class at Holmes Community College.

Brown is a member of the Percussion Arts Society, Mississippi Bandmasters, and an officer in the Mississippi Junior/Community College Band Association. He has judged band contests across the state. He has written percussion parts for Holmes Community College, the University of Mississippi, Oxford High School, Starkville Academy and Copiah Academy. He has performed with the Mississippi Symphony, Mississippi Wind Symphony, Meridian Symphony, Corinth Symphony and the Germantown Symphony.

His wife, Jessica, is a full time English teacher at HCC and a part time colorguard instructor in the fall. They reside in Goodman.