

Choral Music Director

Joel Hill, a graduate of Grenada High School and a 1999 graduate of Holmes Community College majoring in music, returns to the Goodman Campus this fall to be the choral director and vocal music instructor. He will direct the Concert Choir and Coachmen and will also teach voice for majors and non-majors, class voice, music fundamentals, and music for elementary teachers.

After Holmes, Hill went to the University of Mississippi where he received a bachelor of music degree in vocal music education. He also received a master of music degree in choral conducting from Mississippi College.

He was Minister of Music at Central Baptist Church in Grenada for 11 years, and the past four years he was the choral director at Forest High School.

Hill and his wife, Lori Harman Hill, also a Holmes graduate, live in Brandon with their son, Kaler, 2 and daughter, Breely, 5 months. Lori is a nuclear medicine technologist at Baptist Hospital in Jackson. He enjoys singing, watching sports, and playing cards in his spare time.
