

Program	Number of students who graduated in 2017-2018 from CTE programs	Number of students from 2017-2018 who are employed	Types of Employment*
Automotive Technology	17	15	Entry-level automotive techs in Independent Repair Shops, Dealerships, Retail Parts Stores, and Detail Shops
Business Technology	55	53	Transcriptionists, Billing & Coding, Administrative Assistants, Receptionists, Clerical Staff, Medical Records Technicians, Health Information Technicians, Health Information Managers, Bookkeepers, Records Managers, Data Entry Clerks, Administrator Staffing Coordinators, Customer Service Representatives, Unit Clerks, and Account Receivable Clerks
Collision Repair Technology	5	5	Entry-level collision repair techs in Painting, Body Work, Estimating
Computer Information Systems & Computer Programming Technology	23	22	Help Desk Clerks, PC Repair Techs, Network Technicians, Network Consultants, Sales Representatives, Programmers, Computer Operators, Computer Programmers, Software Engineers, Computer Specialists, Computer Technician, Database Administrators, Systems Analysts, Web Designers
Conservation Law Enforcement Technology	3	2	Conservation Law Enforcement Officer, Game Warden
Cosmetology	15	13	Stylist, Sales Associate, Nail Technician, Skin Care Specialist, Cosmetologist, Platform Artist, Salon Owner/Manager, Hair Colorist
Criminal Justice	5	5	Law enforcement, Corrections, Security
Emergency Medical Technician	23	23	Entry-level paramedics in fields such as pre-hospital 911 Service and critical care transport. They also work as off shore paramedics, combat paramedics, and industrial safety officers.
Engineering Technology	35	28	Draftspersons/CAD Technicians, Designers, Industrial Foremen, Construction Project Managers, Construction Superintendents, Safety Project Managers, Power Plant Construction Managers, General Contractors, Project Engineers, Retail and Wholesale Suppliers of Building Materials, Drafters or Estimators with Architectural and Engineering Firms, Surveyor's Assistants, Journeyman Drafters, Construction (residential & commercial)

			Workers, Entry-Level Drafters, Entry-Level and Mid-Level Managers in Industry, Entry-Level Supervisors, Apprentices, Draftsmen, Cost Estimators, Jr. Project Managers
Forestry Technology	4	4	Forestry Technicians with state and federal agencies and private consulting firms, Park Rangers, Soil Conservation Technicians
HVAC Technology	31	24	HVAC Service Technicians, Maintenance Techs, and Duct Work Specialists
Industrial Maintenance Mechanics/Maintenance Technology/Precision Machining	27	26	Entry-Level Industrial Electricians, Electronics Technicians, Industrial/Maintenance Technicians, Industrial Machinery Mechanics, Machinery Maintenance Workers, Millwrights
Mortuary Sciences Technology	5	5	Embalmers and Funeral Directors
Occupational Therapy Assistant	14	14	OTAs in hospitals, outpatient facilities, skilled nursing facilities, and school settings working with special needs children
Paralegal Technology	23	23	Paralegals, Paralegal Assistants, Legal Assistants, Law Office Managers, Records Managers, Docket Clerks, E-Filing Managers, Law Librarians, Researchers, Research Assistants, Legal Editors, Legal Investigators
Practical Nursing	61	60	Licensed Practical Nurse
Surgical Technology	11	11	Surgical Technologists in hospital operating rooms and delivery rooms, physician or dental offices that perform outpatient surgery, in outpatient care centers, and in ambulatory surgery centers.
Welding	41	36	Welders, Cutters, Solderers, and Brazers

**Employment information provided by program instructors; graduation numbers provided by program instructors and supported by institutional data.*