Clinical – Saturday or Sunday 7:00 am – 3:00 pm

Absence Policy: You will be allowed (2) two absences for classroom lecture days, but you must attend 100% of clinical days. Any abuse of this policy will result in the participant not being awarded a certificate of completion. Even if a class lecture is missed, arrangements should be made with the instructor to make up the topics that were missed.

Registration Deadline: March 3, 2014. All documentation including tuition must be turned in by this date. No refunds will be given after this date.

To ensure that you have a spot in the Nursing Assistant class you MUST provide the “Required Documentation” above and tuition or written verification of tuition assistance. Class space is limited to the first twenty (20) students who provide the “Required Documentation” and pay tuition or provide written verification of tuition assistance.

If you are trying to get payment assistance from the WIN Job Center or some other organization you will need to provide items 1-4 from the “Required Documentation” list below. Once this documentation is received at the college you will receive a letter stating that you have provided all required documents except for tuition payment. This letter is what you will need to take to the WIN Center or other organization that you may be trying to get payment assistance from.

You may call to make an appointment to bring the documentation and payment or mail to the address given below.
